...wild blueberry aromas and flavors, wrapped in a thin layer of bark and citrusy acid...as the wine finishes, you taste nut skin, which puts a clean definition to the edge. Graceful and subtle, as usual with Seven Hills wines. - P.G. (7/1/2008)

2005 Pentad, Vintage Red Wine

Wine Enthusiast

Subtle and soft, this aromatic Bordeaux blend is laced with herb and exotic and savory spices, woven through tight fruit flavors of blueberry and musky grape.

This is a delicate, evocative and challenging wine that rewards your attention. - P.G. (7/1/2008)

2006 Ciel du Cheval, Vintage Red Wine

Dominated by Cabernet, rounded with Merlot, using Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot for grace and complexity. Shows black & red fruits, maraschino cherry, marzipan and pungent, sweet spices in the nose. The palate is of red and black fruits over a polished, fine-grained structure.

Bottled in April 2008 after 18 months in fine French barrels.
